

Matthew 5:13-16

•<sup>13</sup> “You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people's feet.

Matthew 5:13-16

- <sup>14</sup> “You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden.<sup>15</sup> Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. <sup>16</sup> In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.

“Do you think we Christians are salt and light, and why do you believe that?”

“No, Christians don’t stand out for people
to ask anymore.”

“No, we’re still too segregated, too separated, by age and race just like the rest of the world.”

The background is a deep blue gradient. It features several bright, horizontal cyan lines that appear to be glowing or out of focus. In the center, there is a faint, translucent shape that resembles a flower or a starburst with multiple petals or points radiating from a central point.

“Nothing distinguishes us.”

“Christianity has become a
prefabricated
material, a
cookie cut out of the world.”

“One thing I’ve noticed,
when we make these changes, changes who
you are from the inside
out.”

What
good is
it?
